What is HuskyPhoto.com ?

The idea and purpose behind HuskyPhoto.com, is to give people the opportunity to obtain professional quality images at a fair price while utilizing all of the conveniences and speed of digital technologies and the World Wide Web.

All images are shot digitally and that allows us to quickly update our web pages after each and every event often making the images available for participants, friends, parents, and families within a few hours of their conclusion. With HuskyPhoto.com there is no waiting in line for your prints. Simply go to our website, find your event, and start browsing the images in the comfort of your home or office. Once you find the images that you like, the order process is simple and easy to follow. Usually within seven days you will receive your professional quality photographs printed on Fuji Crystal Archive Paper in the mail.

Shooting digitally allows all images to be enhanced, cropped, and color corrected easily to obtain the best possible results.

Our Commitment

Provide each and every customer with the finest quality prints that meet and exceed their expectations at affordable prices.

Let's face it, we have all snapped photos only to find when we get the prints back after processing that only 1 or 2 of the images is barely acceptable from a roll of 24 or 36 exposures. By the time you spend the money on film, processing, and going back and forth to the film drop off point, you would have been further ahead not even worrying about taking the photos. You should have relaxed and enjoyed the special event all along.

Let HuskyPhoto.com handle the photography needs at your next sporting activity or special event.
